Epistle: St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 3:9-17 Gospel: Matthew 14:22-34

Message from Father Brooks: We are, temporarily, celebrating weekday Feasts on the closest Sunday. Today, our theme is the Transfiguration (6 August). Generally assumed to have taken place on Mount Tabor, no one knows; it may not have even taken place on a mountain. The Mountain was symbolic of the place for divine revelation. In this sense, we are all climbing a mountain, symbolically moving toward the Divine, moving toward being closer to God. May we all pray for each other's journey, and help each other on the way. Peace to all.
