Epistle: Acts of the Apostles 20:16-18, 28-36 Gospel: John 17:1-13

The Feast of the Ascension of our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ is celebrated each year on the fortieth day after the Great and Holy Feast of Pascha (Easter).

Since the date of Pascha changes each year, the date of the Feast of the Ascension changes. The Feast is always celebrated on a Thursday.

The Feast itself commemorates when, on the fortieth day after His Resurrection, Jesus led His disciples to the Mount of Olives, and after blessing them and asking them to wait for the fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit, He ascended into heaven.

Message from Father Brooks: Although the Feast of the Ascension fell on Thursday, we are acknowledging it today. It is one of the 12 great feasts on the Orthodox Church calendar. According to Scripture, Jesus was raised by his Father three days after he was crucified. After this, he reappeared on earth and interacted with others for forty days before being taken into Heaven. We celebrate this feast as a great triumph which gives us all hope for the path we have chosen. May we all ascend to greater heights, as human beings and as Christians. Peace to all!

Memorial Day, an American holiday observed on the last Monday of May, honors men and women who died while serving in the U.S. military. Originally known as Decoration Day, it originated in the years following the Civil War and became an official federal holiday in 1971. Many Americans observe Memorial Day by visiting cemeteries or memorials, holding family gatherings and participating in parades. Unofficially, at least, it marks the beginning of summer.
