Epistle: St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:4-9    Gospel: John 12:1-18

Message from Father Brooks: We are now to start Holy Week, first with Lazarus Saturday, and then with the Entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. All of us, me included, have probably fallen short of the fast for Great Lent, but now we have the most holy week of the year in which to prepare. Let us all pray for each other and support each other as we make this week - and this journey to Pascha - a significant and special time. God is with all of us, and we should never forget that. Peace to all.

Commemorations for the Living: Archbishop Nikon, Proto Deacon Michael Sochka, Rosemary Notskas, Kim Burdumy, Hugh Ledford, Larry Kosta, Leslie Sochka, Dolly Spiro, Daniel Coraluzzi, Andigoni Steffa, John and Mary Croke, Paula Kosta, Candace Pepenelli, Mac, Kristin Snow, Dhimiter Ndrecka, Francesca Giansante, Flossie Vissar, Pandeli, Jorgaq, Lefteri, and all the servicemen and women in the Armed Forces.

Palm Sunday: On the Sunday before the Feast of Great and Holy Pascha and at the beginning of Holy Week, the Orthodox Church celebrates one of its most joyous feasts of the year. Palm Sunday is the commemoration of the Entrance of our Lord into Jerusalem following His glorious miracle of raising Lazarus from the dead. Having anticipated His arrival and having heard of the miracle, the people went out to meet the Lord and welcomed Him with displays of honor and shouts of praise. On this day, we receive and worship Christ in this same manner, acknowledging Him as our King and Lord.
