Thursday, June 13th: The Feast of the Ascension of our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ is celebrated each year on the fortieth day after the Great and Holy Feast of Pascha (Easter). Since the date of Pascha changes each year, the date of the Feast of the Ascension changes. The Feast is always celebrated on a Thursday. The Feast itself commemorates when, on the fortieth day after His Resurrection, Jesus led His disciples to the Mount of Olives, and after blessing them and asking them to wait for the fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit, He ascended into heaven. http://www.goarch.org/special/listen_learn_share/ascension

The seventh Sunday after the Feast of Holy Pascha is observed by the Orthodox Church as the Sunday of the Fathers of the First Ecumenical Council. This day commemorates the 318 God-bearing Fathers who gathered in Nicaea in 325 at the request of the Emperor, Saint Constantine the Great, to address the heresy of Arianism together with other issues that concerned the unity of the Church. http://lent.goarch.org/sunday_of_fathers/learn/

Full Time Priest: Parish Council is very happy to announce Father Brooks Ledford will be returning to St. John Chrysostom as our full time priest. He will celebrate the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, September 1, 2013. See any member of parish council for additional details.

Sunday school: Congratulations to our graduates; Zach Dardaris, Tori Contoudis and Andrew Fiss. Thank you again to our teachers and our Director, Steve Coraluzzi for a great year. Wishing all of our Sunday school students, teachers and families a happy and safe summer.
