Epistle: St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 2:10-16 Gospel: Matthew 4:18-23

2nd Sunday of Matthew, The Gospel of Matthew 4:18-23: At that time, as Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left their boat and their father, and followed him. And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

An archpriest is a non-monastic priest elevated with an honorific rank; Archpriests are styled The Very Reverend. The honor is usually given as recognition of exemplary service or faithfulness to one's duties while in their current office. Many Years Father Brooks! <https://orthodoxwiki.org/Archpriest>
