Fall Education Classes: This past Wednesday, Fr. Brooks discussed the 12 important feast days celebrated by the Orthodox Church in the Church year from September to September. The lively group of 8 persons who participated in asking questions also had fun eating and learning these important dates. The next class will meet Wednesday, Nov. 12th, at 6:30 pm. The final class meeting will be on Nov. 19th.

Parishioner News: Sophie, Clive and Dhimitri, (daughter, son-in-law and grandson of +Lefteria Dhimitri) are all battling cancer. Their address is 1477 Lynnoak Dr, Claremont, CA 91711. Chris Manosis (Altar Server) is in Aria Hospital, 10800 Knights Rd, Philadelphia, PA, room 4470. Please keep them in your prayers. Sympathy in Christ is extended to the Craig/Siniari family, upon the passing of Priftesha Margo's mother and Father Stephen Siniari's mother-in-law, + Margo Craig. She fell asleep in the Lord surrounded by family in the morning of November 3rd.

On 6 December, the St. Phoebe Center for the Study of the Female Deaconess is sponsoring a conference on this subject at Union Theological Seminary in New York. Fr. Brooks is interested in taking people up for this important retreat. For more information, go to <http://orthodoxdeaconess.org>.

Sunday school outing to the Franklin Institute: Sunday, November 16th, immediately following coffee hour. All invited. Tickets: adults $10.00, Sunday school students $5.00. Monthly Giving: paper towels. Thank you to those who have donated items throughout the year.

Message from Father Brooks: I would like to welcome my long-time friend, Bishop Seraphim, who has returned to serve at St. John's for our Name's Day. I would also like to welcome Dn. Andrew who visits to serve regularly, and Fr. Stephen Siniari, Dn. Gregory Vrato and all the parishioners from Sts. Peter and Paul, our sister parish. As the psalm says, it is good and pleasant when God's people dwell in unity. Peace to all.
