Epistle: St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 5:1-10 Gospel: Matthew 6:22-33

Third Sunday After Pentecost: The eye is the lamp of the body: if therefore thine eye be sound, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness. This means, if you fill your mind with worries over money, you have extinguished the lamp and darkened your soul. Just as the eye that is sound, or "healthy" brings light to the body, and the eye that is evil, or "diseased" brings darkness, so also does the state of the mind affect the soul. If the mind is blinded by these worries, it is cast into darkness; then the soul becomes dark, and how much more so the body as well?

Message from Father Brooks: "Don't worry, mon; be happy", is what the reggae musician Bob Marley would say. In today's reading from the Gospel of Matthew, we are, in a sense, told the same thing. The amount of time and energy we spend worrying about the little things in life (many of which will never happen) takes away from that which we could be using to focus on God and our "neighbor". This love of God and neighbor is not about feelings but about action, and this love is what brings about true happiness. So as Christians, may we not get bogged down by those things that others worry about, but focus our attention on what is truly important. Peace to all.

A Very Happy Father's Day to our Fathers, Grandfathers, Godfathers, Uncles and other men who are so very important in our lives. May God grant them many years!
