Epistle: St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 6:18-23 Gospel: Matthew 8:5-13

St. Peter & Paul Nameday Celebration: Divine Liturgy at 10:00 am followed by a luncheon in the church hall.

The Icon of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul The Orthodox Church has a beautiful presentation of the importance and prominence of the Apostles Peter and Paul with the icon that shows both Apostles standing together holding an image of the Church. Both Apostles, being chosen by our Lord, were instrumental in the establishment and growth of the early Church through their boldness, spiritual strength, and wisdom. Thus they are recognized as "pillars" of the Church, having offered all even unto death for the sake of the Gospel of Christ. In the icon, the Apostle Paul, the great missionary of the early Church, is holding a Gospel book, while the Apostle Peter offers a blessing with his right hand. At the top of the icon is a semicircle, representing the divine realm. Rays extend in the semicircle representing the blessings and presence of God upon His two chosen heralds of the True Faith.

Message from Father Brooks: Today's Gospel reading is the focal point of three healings that Matthew records. The first is the healing of the leper. The second - the one we read about - is the healing of the centurion's servant. The third is Peter's mother-in-law. All, according to the Jewish law, were outsiders: the leper, a Gentile, and a female. Once again, the Gospel informs us that we are always to take care of "the other". As Christians, we are to follow the example of Christ, reaching out to anyone - whomever they may be - with our help. Peace to all.
