Message from Father Brooks: In today's Gospel reading we are reminded of the directness and the power with which Jesus teaches. If his followers (and we, by extension) love their father, mother, sister, brother, anything more than God, they are not worthy to follow Jesus. Luke actually uses the word "hate" to stress the point that God must be number one above all else. It is a difficult message but one that we must follow if we are to be true Christians. May we all continue to support each other as we strive toward this goal of putting God first in our lives. Peace to all.

Father Brooks will in Texas June 8 – 20, 2015. He will be attending his daughter's high school graduation and finalizing his family's move to Philadelphia. While Father Brooks is away from June 8 – June 13, Father Gregory DuDash (484-213-4415), will be available for pastoral necessities. From June 9 – 20, if you are in need of a priest contact Father Brooks (210-461-1956), and he will make arrangements for a priest to contact you.
